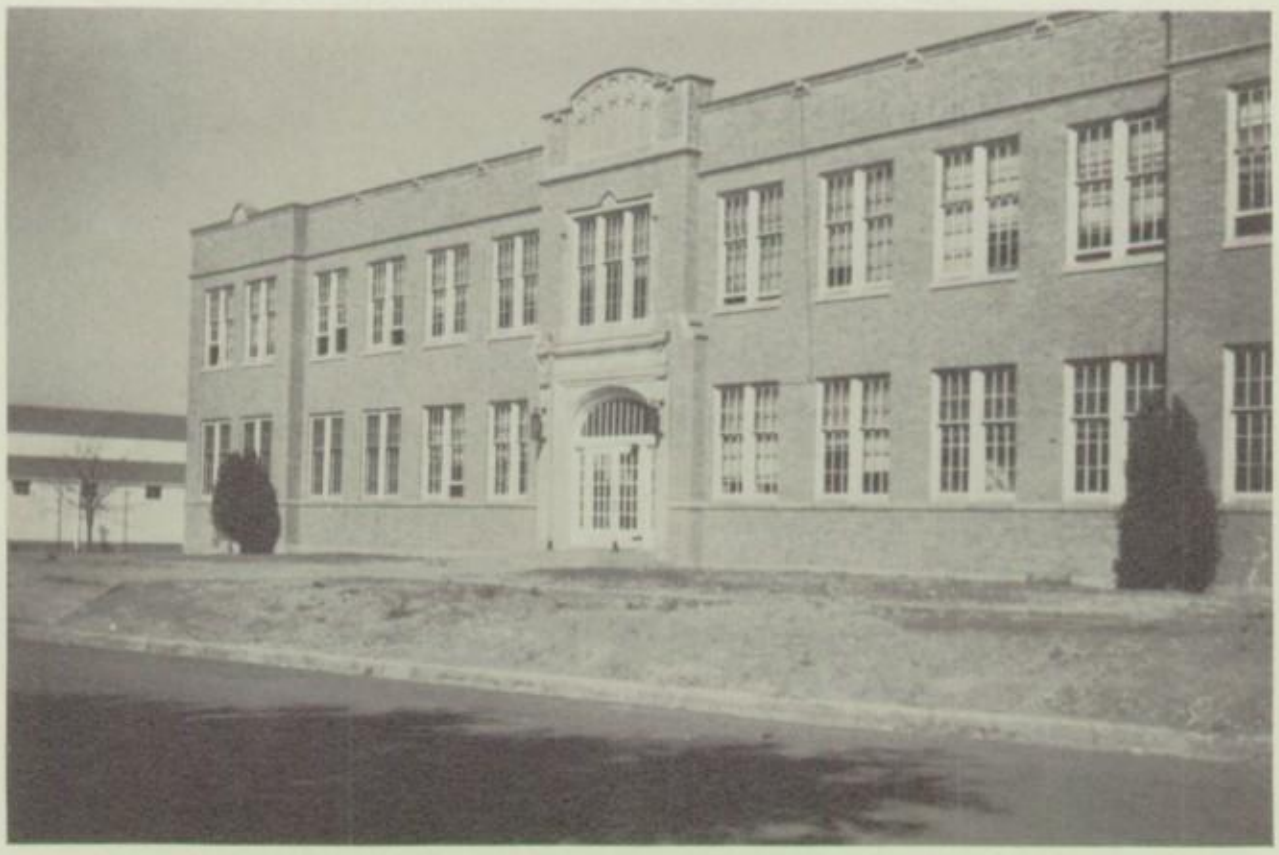
The Tumbleweed

1953



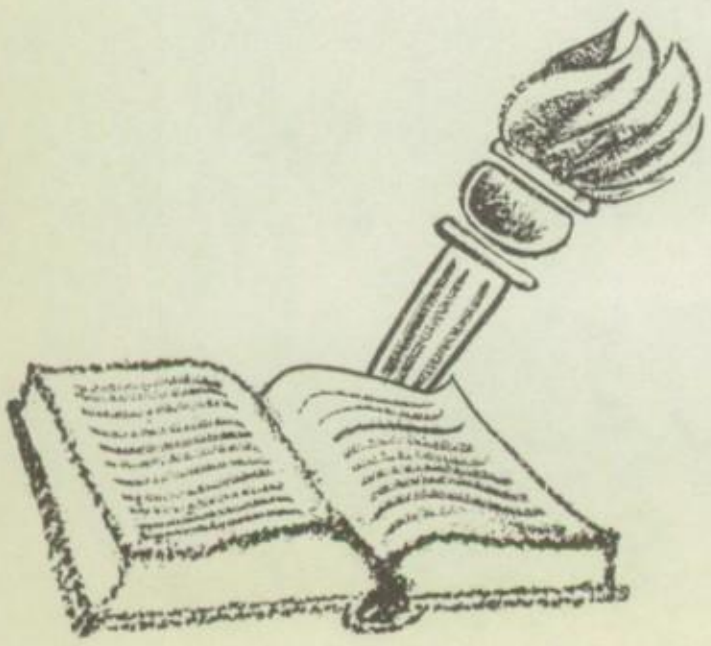
Published by the Press Club
of McLean High School

FOREWORD

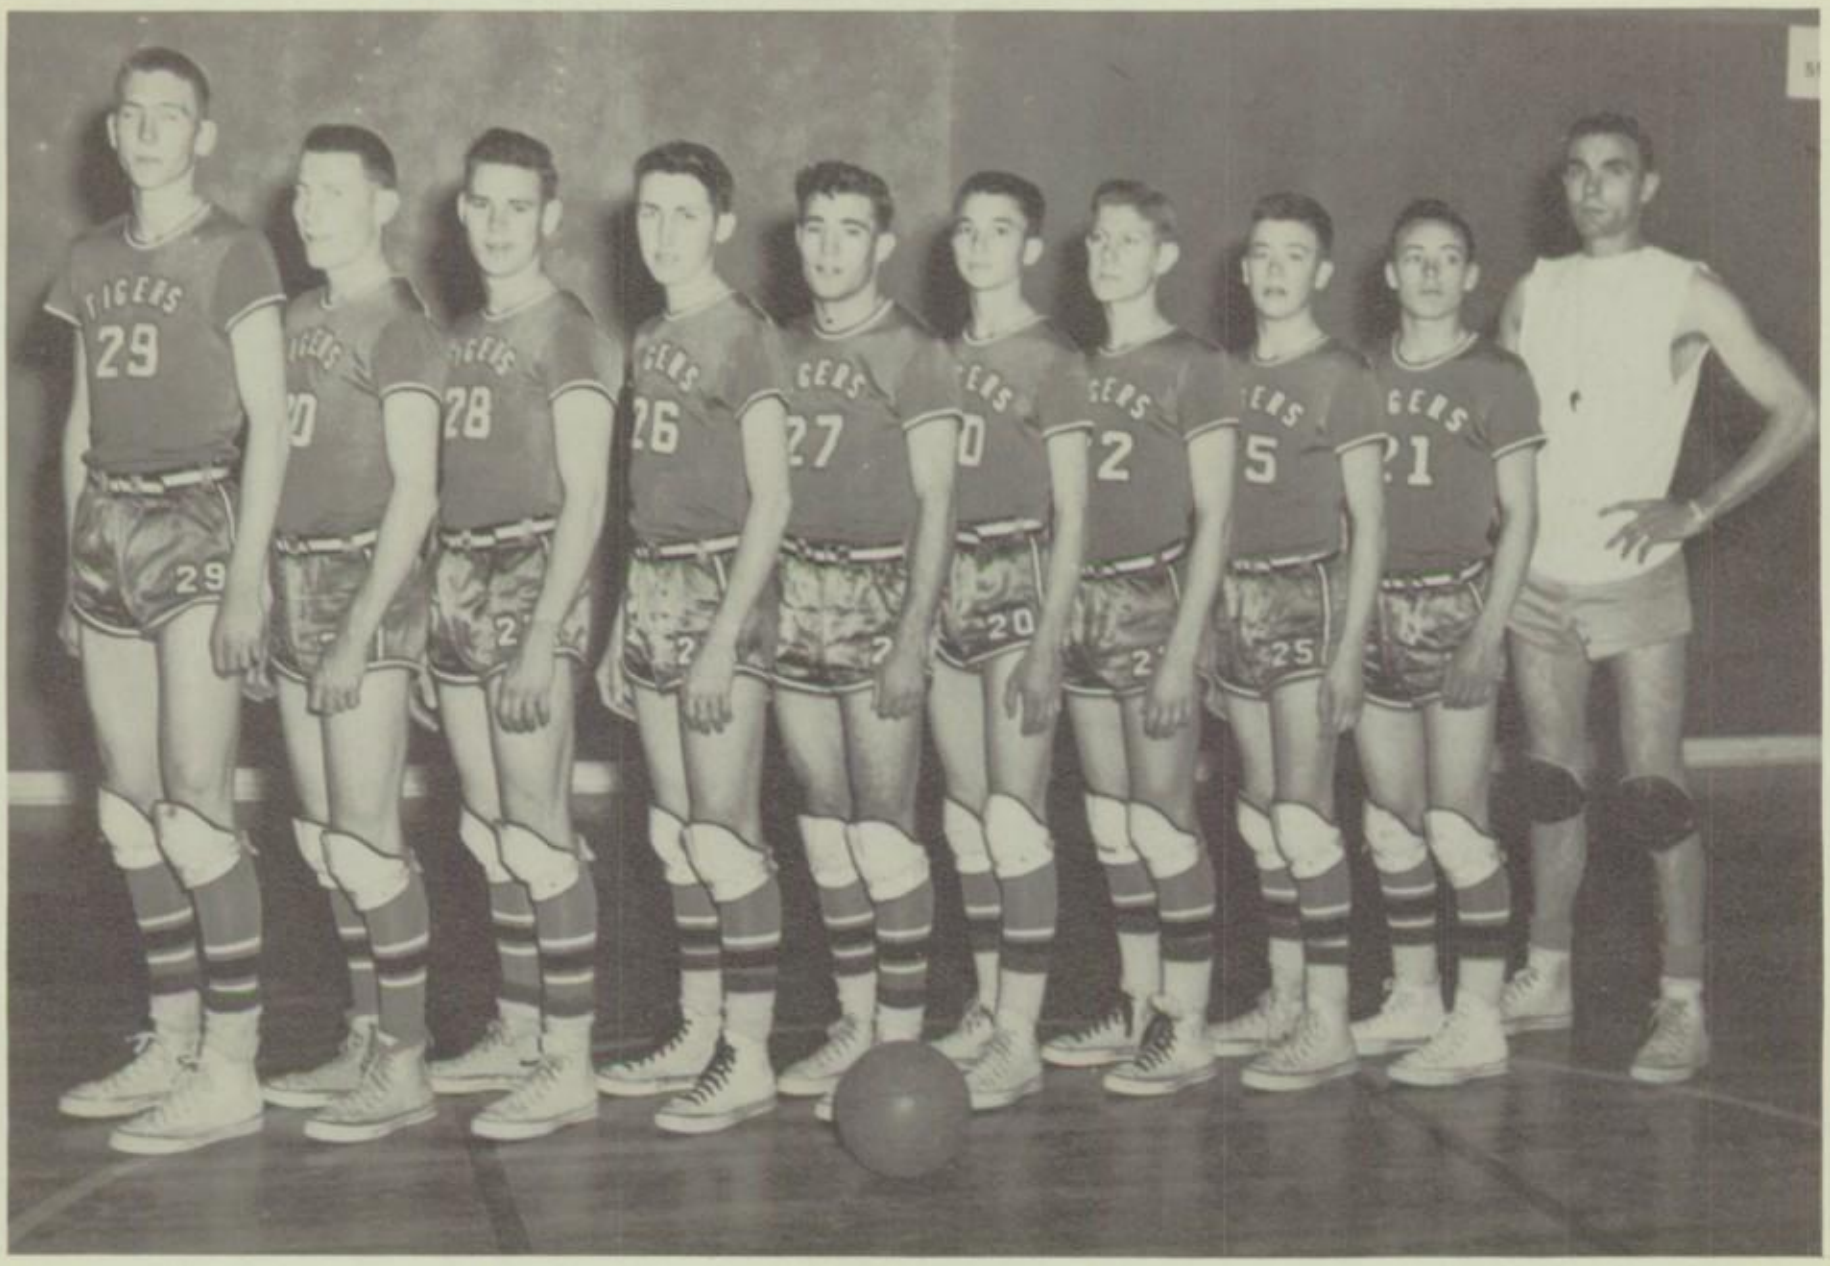
We hope that the pages of this annual will make a lane of memories through which you will walk as you turn each page. With every step that you take, may you be reminded of gladness and sadness that you experienced during this year of 1953 in McLean High School.

Our goal has been accomplished if we can retain in this book only half of the fond memories which will be your faithful companion down the road of life.

The Staff



DEDICATION



For the wonderful sportsmanship and hard work displayed on the basketball court, we dedicate this 1953 Tumbleweed to the McLean Tigers, District Champs. It was because of your "will" to win and the hard work that we are able to do this. It is with our utmost appreciation that we dedicate this book to you.

To my friends, The Students:

The year closes and we, as members of McLean High School, look proudly at the many successful accomplishments and accomplishments of the student body during the year, 1952-1953. Although there are many worthwhile things we have not yet done, we are started in the right direction, the pursuit of Education.

Education follows a definite pattern, moving always toward a definite goal--Liberty. It bridges the great distance between slavery and freedom. Men pursue it because it elevates them from the lower levels of ignorance to the pinnacles of knowledge, from a life of selfishness to a life of service. For it our nation and states are spending many millions of dollars, knowing full well the necessities of our changing world.

Let us think, as we are preparing for life, that time should not be spent but invested. This investment, if invested wisely, will yield many great and useful returns.

Your friend,

Paul L. Kennedy

Sincere thanks are extended to the merchants who purchased advertisements in the 1953 "Tumbleweed". The Press Club is grateful for your generosity and kindness which made the financing of the annual an easier task. Appreciation will be shown by patronization of your stores.

THANK YOU
